For Prayer

Please remember

- The family of Brian Barlow who died suddenly recently.
- Millie Pooler recovering from an operation on a badly broken arm.
- Sheila Morrison now in Green Gates following breaking an ankle.
- Neil, son of Barbara and John Ashdown, now undergoing chemotherapy for cancer.
- Graeme McCracken now back home and with carers once a day. He would welcome phone calls.
- Audrey Johnston, facing mobility problems.
- Suzanne Mitchell, suffering ill-health.
- Our friends from Marston
- Marian Smith's family and friends as they continue to mourn her recent death.
- George Teal, unwell at the moment.
- Our friends at Wheatley as they proceed with building plans for their "back rooms".
- Pauline's colleague Nigel Hawkes, the vicar of Wheatley, following the sudden death of his mother.

Partnership Lent Course 2018

Contemplative, Compassionate, Courageous

A study course based on a book written by the Bishop of Oxford taking a fresh look at the Beatitudes as a vision for a church that is called to be a Christ-like community. The third and remaining session, from 7.30pm and finishing at 9.00pm, is on Thursday 15th March at Wolvercote Baptist Church

Partnership Coffee Cafe – at St Michael's
