JANUARY 24th ‘The wanderings of a Water Engineer’

Alan Reed, retired engineer, will give an illustrated talk about his career in water engineering, finally with Oxfam in emergency and development projects.

FEBRUARY 21st ‘A referendum on Britain’s membership of the European Union?’

Jonathan Scheele, who has worked for many years with the European Commission in Brussels, Switzerland, Romania and London, will talk about the pros and cons of British membership of the European Union and the possibility of a referendum.

MARCH 21st ‘An Oxford Miscellany’

John Ashdown, formerly Conservation Officer for Oxford City Council, will continue his earlier series with another illustrated talk about our city.

*£5 per lecture, or £13 for the series,
in aid of our Church Building Fund payable in advance to Beryl Knotts (Tel: 510055) or at the door.*
